Elective Courses

Students are encouraged to take the following elective courses during their studies of the language.

PORT2221. Portuguese reading course (6 credits)

This course will introduce students to the cultures of Brazil, Angola and Portugal through reading, analysis and discussion of a selection of texts from twentieth-century and contemporary authors. The course will be conducted in Portuguese and it is recommended for students with basic knowledge of the language who wish to improve their ability to read, speak and write. Passages from novels and plays, short stories, poems and song lyrics will enable the students to perceive the writer's skills and aims, while practicing a wide range of language tasks.

Prerequisite: PORT1002. Portuguese I.2

Assessment: 100% coursework

PORT2223. Internship in Portuguese (6 credits)

This course provides students with opportunities to apply their knowledge of Portuguese to real-life situations while working in organisations based in Hong Kong with links to Lusophone countries or the local Lusophone community. The internship is offered on a full-time basis in the summer or a part-time during the semester, in the second, third and fourth years of undergraduate studies. It has a minimum duration of 120 hours and is jointly supervised by the host organisation and the academic coordinator. The assessment is based on feedback from the internship supervisor at the organisation, and a written report in Portuguese with an extension of 800 to 1000 words to be submitted to the academic coordinator.

Prerequisite: PORT2001. Portuguese II.1

Assessment: 100% coursework (graded on a Pass/Fail basis)

PORT3119. Overseas immersion language course – Portuguese (6 credits)

This course provides an opportunity to study Portuguese and to experience linguistic and cultural immersion in a partner institution located in a Portuguese-speaking country. The course usually takes place in the summer months (e.g., June, July and/or August) (courses may also be offered in the winter break) and the duration of the stay may vary from two weeks to one month, but must include at least 60 hours of formal class tuition. Students typically take part in this course after the completion of their second year of language studies at HKU. The course is designed to build on and to reinforce the language competence acquired during the preliminary years of study as well as to prepare the participants for more advanced work in the final years of the Programme.

Prerequisite: PORT2002. Portuguese II.2

Assessment: 100% coursework. In order to be granted credits for this course, participants have to ensure that the course builds on their previous work done at HKU and is offered at the A2 level or above of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and, after completing of the course, students have (1) to produce a formal statement of attendance and certified transcript bearing mention of the final grade(s) obtained from the host institution, as well as the level attained according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages; (2) to provide a portfolio including i. a learning journal written in Portuguese of approximately 1,000 words relating to daily class activities and, ii. samples of assessments (written assignments, tests, examinations, projects etc.) along with evaluation results.
